

NEWMAN MARTIAL ARTS

Emersons Green - Chipping Sodbury

Code of Conduct for Instructors

- All instructors must treat everyone fairly and sensitively at all times regardless of their gender, ethnic origin, cultural background, sexual orientation, religion or political affiliation.
- Accept the special role that they have to play in the establishment of standards by setting a good example of behaviour and conduct at all times.
- Not to attempt to manipulate the rules in order to benefit themselves or their club in any way what so ever.
- To encourage all players and instructors to abide by the rules, regulations and the spirit of the activity.
- To avoid the use of foul, sexist or racist language at all time.
- To use their official position to take action against others who harass, abuse or use foul, sexist or racist language towards participants, instructor, officials and volunteers.
- To ensure that proper supervision is provided by suitably qualified instructors and officials who are capable of promoting good sporting behaviour and good technical skills.
- To ensure that all equipment and facilities meet safety standards at all times.
- To respect the rights of other clubs and their members.
- To show respect to players, instructors, officials and other volunteers involved in the activity at all times.
- Never to endeavour to influence the result of an activity or competition by any actions that are not strictly within the rules.
- To remember that the activity is enjoyed for its own sake, and to play down the importance of awards.
- To always have regard to the best interests of the art, including where publicly expressing an opinion of the art and or any particular aspect of it including others involved in it.
- To resist all illegal or unsporting influences, including banned substances and techniques at all times.
- To promote ethical principles and policies at all times.